To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure I write a recommendation letter for Steve Colvin. I have had the pleasure of working with Mr. Colvin for two years in my role as Deputy Principal of Maple Leaf International School, Dalian Campus.

Mr. Colvin's content knowledge in his subject area is excellent and he is always well prepared for class. He is skilled at adapting his lessons to meet the diverse needs of an ESL class, and is well liked by his students. Mr. Colvin is effective in the area of classroom management, and his desire to see students succeed dominates his professional practice. He displays both an excellent work ethic and energy and he has a good presence in the classroom.

Mr. Colvin exhibits collegiality toward fellow teachers, administrators and professional support staff. He demonstrates sound professional traits through word and deed. In my interactions with Mr. Colvin, I have observed that he displays open-mindedness, vision, and perspective in interactions with others and provides a welcoming environment for professional inquiry, discussion, and visitation. Mr. Colvin has fulfilled instructional and non-instructional duties efficiently and enjoys the respect of colleagues, students and support staff. I am confident Mr. Colvin will prove to be a welcome addition to any school.

Best regards,

Yvonne Chester
